

Connected Schools, Connected Communities

Mark your diary now!

The Australian Health Promoting Schools Association 8th National Conference “Connected Schools, Connected Communities” will be held on 6th – 8th October 2010, at the Burswood Entertainment Complex. This is a biennial conference which will incorporate the association’s AGM.

A range of dynamic local, national and international speakers will address key issues in school health promotion. Delegates can be assured they will not only be inspired but will leave this two day event with a raft of new ideas to apply in their own school/workplace.

The conference is anticipated to attract approximately 200 international, national and regional delegates from a range of government and private health, education and health promotion fields.

Who should attend?

Anyone with an interest in school health promotion including teachers, school nurses, practitioners, researchers, academics and tertiary students.

Why should you attend?

The program will include a combination of key note addresses, plenary sessions, round table discussion groups and workshops. There will also be a trade show with a number of key health organisations showcasing programs and resources.

For further information regarding the conference please go to:

www.wahpsa.org.au

